University Celebrates $6 Million Unrestricted Gift: The Swisher Legacy Lives On

"At this time of exciting progress at our University, we are extremely grateful to receive this transformational gift," said President Tim Cost '81. "We're energized, as an institution, by the confidence placed in us by the Trustees of the Swisher Foundation. An unrestricted gift of this magnitude is a rare opportunity to move our University forward, accelerate our momentum, and fuel our progress."

JU-Jags Tailgate

Jacksonville University and the Jacksonville Jaguars are teaming up to bring you an exclusive offer that includes a game ticket, round-trip transportation, and a pregame tailgate starting at just $25! Join JU students, faculty, staff and alumni to cheer on the Jaguars as they take on the Houston Texans on Sunday, Oct. 21st at 1 p.m. The tailgate in Lot X will begin at 10 a.m.

Please contact McKenzie Bolin at mbolin1@ju.edu with questions.

Smart. Creative. Fearless. College of Fine Arts Highlight

JU College of Fine Arts is just a day out from their very first production to grace the Swisher Theater stage. The Colored Museum has electrified, discomfited, and delighted audiences of all colors, redefining our ideas of what it means to be black in contemporary America. The Colored Museum received overwhelming critical praise for its provocative subject matter and in-depth exploration of the African-American theatrical and cultural past.

Show times at Swisher Theatre: Thursday-Saturday, September 27-29; 7:30 p.m.

Ticket purchases can be made here.

Alumni Spotlight

Christopher Sweeney '13 is an educator, motivator, and contemporary street artist. He has painted sizable murals, mostly of his signature stretched heart, in Jacksonville, Naples, Gainesville, Vero Beach, Sebastian, and Fort Pierce, FL. On Saturday, September 8, Sweeney '13 added his personal touch to JU in a big way.

Read his story in Wave Magazine Online.
